This presentation will discuss the growing phenomena of females outperforming males educationally in Jordan and beyond, the ways in which a rigid tracking system can sometimes benefit females, and new forms of inequality in the educational sector.