

African American Equity Symposia Series

Reception and Book Signing Immediately Afterwards

(Faculty Receive 10% Discount on Books)

Black Education: A Transformative Action Agenda for Research and Practice

The Centrality of Studying Blacks in the South

Dr. Jerome Morris

Associate Professor of Social Foundations of Education and Director of the Race, Class, Place, and Outcomes
Research Group (RCPO)
at the Institute for Behavioral Research

University of Georgia

February 24, 2010
Gambrell 153
5:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m.

USC Office for Child and Family Advocacy
Through Teacher Education
College of Education, University of South Carolina
Dr. Gloria Boutte and Dr. Susi Long

Funded by the Yvonne and Schuyler Moore Child Advocacy Chair
(With support from African American Studies and the Institute of African American Research)