

Awards, Fellowships, and Scholarships
University of South Carolina - College of Education

Awards Fellowships Scholarships	Available for Students Pursuing and Enrolled as/in	Description Criteria and Requirements for Eligibility	Projected Amount (Varies from year to year according to donations)
Hal and Mickey Anderson*	Science Undergraduate	This award was established to provide a scholarship for a student in the College of Science and Math who also plans to attend the College of Education to pursue the M.A.T. or M.T. in Science Education.	$1,000.00
Margaret Anliker Fellowship	Higher Education or Student Affairs Graduate Student	This fellowship honors Margaret Anliker who was an alumnus of USC. It is awarded in part on the basis of outstanding performance as a graduate assistant. The recipient of this award is pursuing a Master's Degree in either Student Affairs or Higher Education.	$250.00
Campbell-Witten Fellowship	Student Affairs Graduate Student	This fellowship honors two very special persons in the field of student development at USC, Dr. James B. Campbell and Dr. Charles H. Witten. Both are past Vice-Presidents of Student Affairs and were strong forces within the Student Affairs Program and the College of Education. An award denoting excellence in student development is made each year to a student who is/has: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>$ Enrolled full-time in the USC Student Affairs Program</li> <li>$ In good standing with the University</li> <li>$ Successfully completed six hours in the Student Affairs Program</li> <li>$ A sound understanding of the field of student development</li> <li>$ Demonstrated capability to achieve in the manner characteristic of both Drs. Campbell and Witten</li> <li>$ Extraordinary academic and extracurricular qualities of leadership, responsibility, as well as a commitment to serving others</li> </ul>	$1,000.00
Cecil-Self Scholarship*	Elementary Education Graduate Student	Established in 1990, this award honors Martha Bishop Cecil of Spartanburg and Nancy Anderson Self of Columbia, elementary school teachers, and in memory of their youngest children, Doris White Cecil and Nancy Anderson Self, students at the University whose lives were lost at age 21. An award is given each year to attract and retain outstanding students in the field of Elementary Education with a preference given to minority students based on financial need. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>$ Must be a full-time student</li> <li>$ Outstanding grade point average</li> </ul>	$1,500.00
Conrad-Becton Scholarship	Instruction and Teacher Education	This award was established to provide a scholarship for an outstanding student in the College of Education who intends to become a teacher.	$500.00
Cope-Crothers Scholarship	Higher Education Graduate Student	This scholarship is awarded to an outstanding student who is enrolled in the master's or doctoral program of Higher Education in the Department of Educational Leadership and Policies.	$300.00

Awards Fellowships Scholarships	Available for Students Pursuing and Enrolled as/in	Description Criteria and Requirements for Eligibility	Projected Amount (Varies from year to year according to donations)
Frances Gibson Daniel Scholarship*	Special Education (Emotionally Handicapped, Elementary Level), M.A.T. Student	Established in 1997 by Bill and Frances Ellett to honor Frances Daniel who devoted her life to helping others through education, this scholarship is available to a graduate student enrolled in the Department of Educational Psychology who is planning to teach emotionally handicapped children at the elementary school level. $ Grade point average of 3.5	$500.00
J. McTyeire Daniel Scholarship*	Secondary Education M.A.T. or M.T. Student	Faculty and students of University High School established this scholarship in 1965. A public educator for 48 years, J. McTyeire Daniel was a vital part of South Carolina's system of public education. An award is made each year to a student pursuing a degree in Secondary Education. $ Must be a South Carolina resident $ Grade point average of 3.20 or better	$2,000.00
Mary L. Duffie Endowed Fellowship*	Special Education	The purpose of this endowment is to provide a scholarship to a worthy student pursuing a degree with the Special Education field.	$500.00
Education Achievement Award-Early Childhood	Early Childhood Education Graduate Student	This award is to recognize a student for outstanding academic accomplishments in Early Childhood.	Certificate and Plaque
Education Achievement Award-Elementary	Elementary Education Graduate Student	This award is to recognize a student for outstanding academic accomplishments in Elementary Education.	Certificate and Plaque
Education Achievement Award-Secondary	Secondary Education Graduate Student	This award is to recognize a student for outstanding academic accomplishments in Secondary Education.	Certificate and Plaque

Awards Fellowships Scholarships	Available for Students Pursuing and Enrolled as/in	Description Criteria and Requirements for Eligibility	Projected Amount (Varies from year to year according to donations)
Department of Educational Psychology Outstanding Student Awards	Two Awards - One Doctoral Student and One Master's Student in a Department of Educational Psychology and Research Program	Recognition of a master's and a doctoral student, who demonstrate outstanding accomplishments through: (1) course work; (2) active participation in scholastic and/or professional activities; and (3) interaction with other individuals. Master's <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>$ Completion of minimum of 15 USC graduate hours beyond the bachelor's degree</li> <li>$ Cumulative graduate GPA of at least 3.5</li> <li>$ Evidence of membership and activity in professional organizations</li> <li>$ Evidence of service to the Department, College, University, and/or profession</li> </ul> Doctoral <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>$ Completion of a minimum of 15 USC graduate hours beyond the Master's degree</li> <li>$ Cumulative graduate GPA of at least 3.5</li> <li>$ Evidence of scholarship (i.e., paper presentations, articles, reports and or work in progress)</li> <li>$ Evidence of service to the Department, College, University, and/or profession</li> <li>$ Evidence of membership and activity in professional organizations</li> </ul>	$250.00
Paul P. Fidler Fellowship	Higher Education or Student Affairs Graduate Student	In recognition of Dr. Paul P. Fidler's 30 years of service to the University of South Carolina and his outstanding contributions to the Student Affairs and Higher Education programs, the Outstanding Graduate Student Award for the Division of Student Affairs has been rededicated as the Dr. Paul P. Fidler Fellowship. The Fellowship is given to recognize a student who consistently goes beyond the call of duty and demonstrates a sincere commitment to bettering higher education and the University of South Carolina. This award will be given to a second-year graduate student. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>$ Must be in good standing with the USC</li> <li>$ Must have completed 18 hours in the program</li> <li>$ Resume</li> <li>$ Must have a variety of experiences within student affairs</li> </ul>	$750.00
Mary Carter Grant Memorial Scholarship	Art Education (Elementary Level) Undergraduate or Graduate Student	Established in 1991, this award is made each year to an Art Education student who is preparing to teach art in an elementary school. The Department of Art assists the College of Education Scholarship Committee in selecting the recipient. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>$ Must be a full-time student</li> <li>$ Must be a deserving student</li> </ul>	$500.00

Awards Fellowships Scholarships	Available for Students Pursuing and Enrolled as/in	Description Criteria and Requirements for Eligibility	Projected Amount (Varies from year to year according to donations)
Mary J. Heimberger Memorial Award*	Elementary Education M.A.T. Student	This award is given in memory of Mary J. Heimberger, who was a faculty member in Elementary Education from 1978 until her unexpected death in 1981. Her colleagues, friends, and relatives established this award as a means of continuing the work to which she was so committed. An award is made each year to an outstanding Elementary Education student who intends to become a practicing teacher. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>$ Must be a student majoring in Elementary Education</li> <li>$ Exceptional performance in at least one practicum experience, the pre-professional core, and all EDEL courses</li> <li>$ Overall GPA</li> <li>$ Leadership skills</li> <li>$ Demonstrated financial need</li> <li>$ Preference will be given to students whose disciplinary core is English</li> </ul>	$500.00
Richard E. Ishler Award*	Elementary Education Graduate Student	The Richard E. Ishler award is given to an outstanding student in the area of Elementary Education. Dr. Ishler was Dean of the College of Education from 1989-96. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>$ Grade point average of 3.5 or better</li> </ul>	$1,500.00
Gerald and Myra Lahn Fellowship in Early Childhood Education	Early Childhood Graduate Student	The purpose of this fellowship is to provide support for three graduate students in the Early Childhood Education program in the College of Education.	$500.00 each (3 Awards)
Paul Montgomery MacMillan III Memorial Fellowship	Student Personnel Services Graduate Student	The Paul Montgomery MacMillan III Memorial Fellowship was established in 1975 from gifts in memory of Paul Montgomery MacMillan III who dedicated his life to student activities programming at the college level. An award is made each year to a graduate student in Student Affairs. Preference is given to a student who has worked with the University Union and planning a career with a University Union. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>$ Must be a full-time graduate student</li> <li>$ Leadership ability</li> <li>$ Strong academic standing</li> </ul>	$600.00
Carl H. Medlin, Jr. Scholarship	Educational Leadership and Policies	This scholarship was established by friends and family of Dr. Carl H. Medlin, Jr. in his memory. Dr. Medlin's Ed.D. was one of the first degrees granted from a program completely emphasizing adult and community education. The recipient of this award is a graduate student who plans to teach and work in the field of adult and community education.	$1,000.00

Awards Fellowships Scholarships	Available for Students Pursuing and Enrolled as/in	Description Criteria and Requirements for Eligibility	Projected Amount (Varies from year to year according to donations)
NASPE Scholarship Award	Physical Education Undergraduate	This scholarship is designed to honor an outstanding professional. This person must demonstrate leadership capabilities through role model activities for fellow students. $ Must be a full-time student $ 3.25 GPA (cumulative, 90 hrs. minimum) $ Community service $ Participation in professional activities $ Leadership in professional organizations $ Professional memberships	$200.00
Outstanding Athletic Trainer Award	Physical Education Undergraduate (Athletic Training Program)	This award is designed to honor a student in the athletic training field. $ Must be a full-time undergraduate student $ Minimum of 2.80 GPA (cumulative, 60 hrs. minimum) $ Community service $ Departmental service $ Professional membership and leadership $ Must have completed 400 clinical hours and demonstrated above average training skills	$200.00
Outstanding M.A.T. Student in Physical Education Award	Physical Education M.A.T. Student	This award is designated for a well-rounded professional earning an M.A.T. degree who has demonstrated above average teaching skills. This award is reserved for a student who has shown a commitment to departmental, as well as, community service. This student must also possess a professional membership and exhibit professional leadership.	$200.00
Outstanding Teaching Major Award	Physical Education Undergraduate	This award is designed to honor a student preparing to become a physical education teacher. $ Minimum 2.80 GPR (cumulative, 60 hrs. minimum) $ Professional membership and leadership $ Departmental service $ Community service $ Must have completed PEDU 360 & 361 and demonstrate above average teaching skills	$200.00
Peabody Scholarship*	Teaching Interns/ Student Teachers in initial teacher education programs	The Peabody Scholarship was established in 1914 and awards are made each year to a prospective student teacher. Awards are issued for the actual semester in which the student is completing student teaching/internship. Only apply for the semester you anticipate doing your Internship B, Internship II, or directed teaching. $ Grade point average of 3.50 or better $ Must be a full-time student $ Miller Analogies/GRE test scores $ Extracurricular activities, community service, and leadership activities	$1,500.00

Awards Fellowships Scholarships	Available for Students Pursuing and Enrolled as/in	Description Criteria and Requirements for Eligibility	Projected Amount (Varies from year to year according to donations)
Preston Award	Secondary Education M.A.T. or M.T. Student	A certificate of achievement is given each year to an outstanding Secondary Education graduating senior. $ Grade Point Average of 3.50 or better $ Must be graduating in Secondary Education	Certificate and Plaque
Elizabeth Scruggs Scholarship in Latin Education	Secondary - Latin Education	The purpose of this scholarship is to provide support for a student who has an undergraduate degree in Latin. Student must agree to teach Latin for four years in public school system, preferably in Williamsburg County.	$1,000.00
James A. Stoddard Memorial Fellowship*	Doctoral Candidates	The James A. Stoddard Fellowship was begun in 1965 by the children of James A. Stoddard, whose dedicated service to education covered a span of 48 years. He was a teacher, a principal, a district superintendent, an assistant state superintendent, and a professor of Secondary Education in the College of Education. An award is made each year to doctoral candidates who are residents of the state of South Carolina. $ GRE score of 1100 or better $ Demonstrated financial need $ Successful completion of the qualifying exam $ Professional potential	$1,000.00
Nelle Taylor Scholarship in Special Education*	Special Education Graduate Student	The Nelle Taylor Scholarship was established in 1996 by Schuyler and Yvonne Moore. From teacher, to superintendent, to former Chairperson of the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education, Mrs. Taylor has had a vital impact on South Carolina's educational arena. $ Grade point average of 3.5 or better $ Professional potential	$500.00
Robert G. Thurber Award	Higher Education and Student Affairs Graduate Student	The purpose of this endowed award is to honor the memory of Dr. Robert G. Thurber who provided a lifetime of service to higher education and state government. The recipient of this award is a student in the master's program of Higher Education and Student Affairs in the Department of Educational Leadership and Policies.	$500.00
Dr. Patterson Wardlaw Memorial Fellowship*	All areas in the College of Education	The Patterson Wardlaw Memorial Scholarship was established in 1996 by Mr. James Pruitt. Dr. Wardlaw was Superintendent of Education in Darlington, Chairman of the Board of Education in Richland County, and founder and editor of the South Carolina Education journal, and professor and Dean of the College of Education. Students enrolled in the College of Education are invited to apply for this scholarship. $ Grade Point Average of 3.50 or better $ Professional potential $ Must be a full-time student with a demonstrated financial need $ Leadership skills (documented by participation in activities and organizations related to education)	$1,000.00

Awards Fellowships Scholarships	Available for Students Pursuing and Enrolled as/in	Description Criteria and Requirements for Eligibility	Projected Amount (Varies from year to year according to donations)
Robert A. Weber Memorial Award*	Elementary Education Graduate Student	The Robert A. Weber Memorial Award was established in 1968. An award is made each year to a graduate student in Elementary Education. $ Exceptional performance in all EDEL courses $ Professional attitude and potential $ Miller Analogies/GRE test scores $ Leadership skills $ Overall grade point average $ Demonstrated financial need	$400.00

For more information about particular awards, fellowships, and scholarships, contact the following as indicated by (*, **, or ***):

* College of Education Scholarship Committee – Dean’s Office 777-3828 or Office of Student Affairs 777-6732

** USC Student and Alumni Services Office – 777-4172

There are separate applications for the Margaret Anliker, Campbell-Witten, Paul P. Fidler, and the Paul M. Montgomery MacMillan III Fellowships. Contact the USC Office of Student and Alumni Services for the appropriate forms.

*** Other

There are separate applications for the scholarships administered by the Department of Educational Leadership and Policies, the Department of Educational Psychology, the Department of Instruction and Teacher Education, and the Department of Physical Education. Contact the specific department for additional information about their respective awards.

College of Education Departments:

- Educational Leadership and Policies – 777-3802
- Educational Psychology (Special Education) – 777-6585
- Instruction and Teacher Education - Early Childhood – 777-5129
- Instruction and Teacher Education - Elementary – 777-4265
- Instruction and Teacher Education - Secondary – 777-8185
- Physical Education – 777-3172

Outside College of Education:

- Department of Art – 777-4236